

La Partecipazione cittadina ci libera dalla corruzione politica: The Citizens Participation frees us from political corruption (Italian Edition)

The book, starting from land management, tends to make all citizens with the political social network participation, because it serves a more open Democracy Elective, but the real strength revolutionary is just Participation. The failure of indirect democracy, in a complex society, is leading to the collapse of the institutions. Therefore, the participation, playing a role of innovation in decision-making, as a powerful tool for the evaluation and rationalization, makes responsible use of public resources and environment. Especially it provides helping in the titanic struggle against corruption, mafia crimes and lobbies through traceability policy. We are in the presence of strong technological innovations and the peer-to-peer (P2P) and the 3D printer will change the use and management of land. Tales of Participation: Eight tales of Participatory Democracy to understand why it is essential to participation. Through the stories are explained all the problems and the quality of the various techniques of Participation. Participate online with a click To operate a social network should be a basis of rules that solve the problems stronger: the right to information, a third party, who, when, costs. Participation onsite Despite the predictable development of social networks is important to realize even the ONSITE assemblies, in a hybrid configuration with the processes onLine. Operational aspects Specifications of facilitation techniques, laws to be able to use the 2% to be allocated to the Participation Participation in the languages to be used. The Rules: The bill of Participation In participatory practices, the adoption of the minimum set of rules is a tool self-installing The Bill, directly related to the principles of the White Paper on European Governance, is proposed for the voluntary subscription as a regulatory element of the assemblies that individual citizens can organize
