

Martin Luther King Jr. and the Sermonic Power of Public Discourse (Albma Rhetoric Cult & Soc Crit)

The nine essays in this volume offer critical studies of the range of Kings public discourse as forms of sermonic rhetoric. They focus on five diverse and relative short examples from Kings body of work: Death of Evil on the Seashore, Letter from Birmingham Jail, I Have a Dream, A Time to Break Silence, and Ive Been to the Mountaintop. Taken collectively, these five works span both the duration of Kings career as a public advocate but also represent the broad scope of his efforts to craft and project a persuasive vision a beloved community that persists through time.
