

Revolution, and Other Essays (Annotated)

A collection of 13 essays written between 1900 and 1908, published in 1910. The lead essay, Revolution, outlines how and why London renounced capitalism as a failed social system and declared himself an active participant in the socialist revolution, the last essay is an autobiographical piece, and the essays in between are on diverse subjects. A few of the essays are actually humorous short fiction stories; others are serious, sometimes angry rants against capitalistic greed and political corruption. All of the pieces are thought-provoking and excellently written.
